Mixing Boal: Kitchen of the Oppressed World Premiere

Debuts June 17-27, 2010 at the 2010 Ottawa Fringe Festival
Academic Hall

Join the Rideau Award nominated Counterpoint Players in the Kitchen of the Oppressed as they dish up political theatre that's easy to swallow. Four seasoned chefs go spoon to spoon in this interactive cooking show inspired by Augusto Boal's Theatre of the Oppressed. And you decide which ingredients go into the Mixing Boal!

Feast on this delectable new show, prepared to taste according to the audience's choices.

Counterpoint Players Mandate:

To develop, produce, and play with theatre that provides a counterpoint – engaging the audience and actors in a consciousness-raising theatrical event that makes use of contrasting and complementary elements. Each element, perspective, or “melodic line,” is individual and unique, creating effective contrasts that transfigure the theatrical work and affect the audience.
